Shrewd People Think Shellbark . Was Sent Out to Test Patron.

MORELLO'S IMPROVED FORM

Sallie McClelland Breaks Her Owner's Heart and Backers.

The had weather yesterday spoiled what would undoubtedly have been one of the best acea of the present Morris Park meeting. hape, Matt Byrnes would have sent Tamcolt was giving Falsetto's son seven pounds. ammany however was scratched and the sithdrawal also of The Pepper left Patron and shellbark alone. It was surmised by the threwd people that Shellback was started to HEIRS TO MILLIONS ADRIFT give Byrnes a line on Patron. This looked to be shrewd people that Shellback was started to the case, especially as Garrison forced matters from the start. He made l'atron run the half in 49 seconds and the mile in 1.42 3-5. This time, made as it was up the bill and in Two Sons of Albert E. Rankin deep coing, proves what the writer claimed after Tammany defeated Patron, that had the latter gone on with the Falsetto colt the race would have been run in better than 1.39 and the finish might, have been closer, even their Tri-Millionaire Grandmother gin Tammany's favor. Shellbark gave up Thrust Them Into the Street. the fight after a mile had been run and Patron went on alone, winning in a gallop.

Starter Rowe, while at the post in the last the colored boy on the horse if that was not "old Bootjack." The boy nodded in the affirmative. Bootjack was trained by starter Roweyears ago, and won some famous races. He certainly seemed to recognize his old master, who never treated him other than with kindness. Bootjack is now owned by "Brown Dick."

Brown Dick."

Frank Fauk, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

The children were turned out of doors this morning by their grandmother, who is said to be worth $3,000,000, because Mrs. Rankin, ir, would not consent to an absolute divorce.

Albert E. Rankin day Bosthwick, a jurner for a Miss Mary Bosthwick, a jurner for a Miss Mary Bosthwick, a jurner has not "our Bootjack." The boy hodded in the affirmative. Bootjack was trained by starter Roweyears ago, and won some famous races. He certainly seemed to recognize his old master, who never treated him other than with kindness. Bootjack is now owned by "Brown Dick."

"There's the first two-year-old coit I ever rode." exclaimed Jockey Fitzpatrick, as he dismounted from Morello after the haif mile dash yesterday. Morello has certainly improved wonderfully. He was in great shape at Washington, but after being brought to Brooklyn was alling for some time. He is by Eolus, out of Cerise, and had be been entered in good stakes he would be worth a lot of money. Pierre Lorillard tried unsuccessfully to purchase him yesterday. It is a pity Morello is not in the Great Eclipse Stakes. He would win it to a certainty. Yesterday, he met a good field, including the grack Afax. The haif mile was run in 48%, but Morello did nothing but gallop the entire distance.

Speaking of the Great Eclipse States reminds one that that rich event will be decided to-morrow. Marcus Daly will be represented by Shelley Tuttle, with Garrison up. The Rebeoca Rowsett colt will be ridden by Billy Donohue, Don Alonzo and Sir Francis will carry the Ehret colors, with Murphy on the tormer and Doggett astride the latter. Fitipatrick will pilot Dave Gideon's Bonnie Lee colt, now known as Dr. Rice. The Reaper, the Western crack, arrived yesterday and Tony Williams came along to do the riding; Hamilton will ride the St. Haise-Belladonna colt for Foxhall Keene, Littleneld will have the mount on Frieze, Moser will pilot Reginald, Sir Waiter, the winner of the Great American, will have Taval up, and Simmons will be ridden by the veteran William Hayward. The colts all carry 118 pounds. If the track is at all dry the writer will expect to Jees the finish between Frieze, Don Alonzo and Sr Waiter.

Salife McClelland yesterday broke the heart of her owner and the pocketbooks of the plungers. This fickle Miss never seems to run two races alike. Yesterday, though she had a poor field to beat, a disgraceful last was the best she could do. The race was lost at the head of the stretch. Sallie took it into the head of the outside rail, and go she did, notwithstanding the efforts of her jockey takeep her straight. Sallie will do better later on. . . .

The start in the last race was delayed by Strke, who made up his mind that he didn't want to race. Starter Rowe solved the difficulty by sending Stryke two lengths in front of his field. Then a crack of the whip started him and the field well together. Stryke ran hand races and these cells. hundred yards and then quit.

Trainer "Snip" Denovan yesterday applied for a license for young belehanty, who rode kirkovan in such bungling fashion a few days . . .

Davy Johnson laid up against Freemason in the Larchmont Stakes yesterday and as fast as the money came in he sent it out on Sir Francis.

Alahe, the Western crack and present holder of the record at a mile and a sixteenth, was sold yesterday to J. J. McCafferty by J. Smallwood. The price given is said to be $20,100 cash. Alaho is a bay horse seven years old, and is by imp. St. Mungo, dam Allie, by Virgil. His new owner will bring him East during the Monmouth meeting, and is confident be can down the cracks hereabours.

"Enapsack" McCarthy yesterday collected North of amily of Jockey Andy McCarthy. This makes a total of $1,857 col-lected by the trainer.

Mrs. Mary F. Rankin, wife of A. E. Rankin, son race yesterday, noticed an old horse trotting of the richest woman in the Eastern Dis-along the road from Westchester. "I think I along the road from Westchester. "I think I recognize that old head," said the starter to his assistants. Then he called loudly "Jack: The old horse stopped, pricked up his said." The old horse stopped, pricked up his said. ears and a whinny of pleasure reached the District Industrial School on South Third ears of the group at the post, Starter street, as her husband had deserted her and Rowe's eyes were moist as he asked absolutely refused to support her. According to colored boy on the horse if that Albert E. Rankin deserted his wife six years ago for a Miss Mary Bostawick, a former school-chum of the wronged wife. The couple went housekeeping at 534 One Hundred and Sixty-first street, New York, where they have had four children. Young Mrs. Hankin on May 15 last sat all night on the doorsteps of her husband's house, in One Hundred and Sixty-first street, with her children. They were famished, but Hankin spurned them away.

Mrs. Hankin obtained an order from Judge Truax for $15 a week allmony, which was never paid. The husband is now hidding from an order of arrest for contempt of court.

fat associated puese.t Madeid, June 10.—The strikes progress in Catalonia. The workmen in several factories in Barcelona and in other places have joined the movement to secure a betterment in their condition.

The strikers became very disorderly, and yesterday repeated conflicts occurred between the police and mobs. The situation looked so threatening that the military was called upon to assist the police in restoring time, but finally the strikers, seeing many of their number cut down and dangerously Uno Grande has been sold to the Empire wounded lost heart and fied. Quite a number were arrested.

It is regarded as certain that a state of siege will be proclaimed throughout the entire district. This is exactly what the strikers desire, as they believe that Lieutenant-General Blanco y Erenas, Military Governor of Catalonia, will succeed in bringing about a settlement of their claims better than would the civil authority, which the strikers
